CONSTITUTION

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The universal visible Church consists of all those persons, in every nation, together with their children, who make profession of the religion of Christ and submission to His law.

A particular Church consists of a number of professing Christians, with their offspring, associated for divine worship and godly living, agreeably to the Holy Scriptures, and submitting to a certain form of government. (See form of Gov., Chap. II.)

The Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, was organized as at present in the year 1780, and the first General Assembly was held in the month of May of the following year. Its Constitution is embraced in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms. The Doctrines of the Church are those formulated and maintained by the Reformers of the sixteenth century, in France, Holland, England and Scotland, and are essentially in harmony with the belief of all Evangelical Christians. While the Church holds to the excellence of its system of doctrine, it acknowledges that its most essential features are, the incarnation of the Son of God, His vicarious atonement, repentance, faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and justification by faith alone, and this faith wrought by the Holy Spirit; and possessing this faith, the believer is entitled to the communion of saints.

In its outward organization, the Church is a unit; yet each particular congregation is free to move in its own sphere, as circumstances and local laws require, but conforming to the principles of the written Constitution.

As the Church session stands at the door of communion and membership, so the Presbytery is the judge of the qualifications of its members, and can admit, censure or depose, acting in the fear of God, and in accordance with His word.

The Synod is, in some sense, a larger Presbytery, reviewing the proceedings of the Presbyteries under its care, with power to redress whatever has been done contrary to order, to form new Presbyteries, and generally to take such action as shall tend to the edification of the Church.

The General Assembly is the highest judicatory of the Church. It decides all appeals and references brought from lower judicatories, reviews the proceedings of Synods, and gives advice and instruction to the whole Church in questions of law or morals submitted to it. It can decide all controversies respecting doctrine and discipline, and bear testimony against error in doctrine or immorality in practice in any Church, Presbytery or Synod. It may recommend changes in the Constitution, but a majority of the Presbyteries must approve before they are valid or obligatory.

Finally, the distinguishing features of the Church are, the equality of the clergy, as opposed to Prelacy or Episcopacy, and the equal voice of the laity in all ecclesiastical assemblies.

CHURCH OFFICERS.

(See form of Govt., Chaps. III. and IV.)

The ordinary and perpetual officers in the Church are Bishops or Pastors, the representatives of the people, usually styled Ruling Elders and Deacons.

The pastoral office is the first in the Church, both for dignity and usefulness. The person who fills this office hath in Scripture obtained different names expressive of his various duties. As he has the oversight of the flock of Christ, he is termed Bishop. As he feeds them with spiritual food, he is termed Pastor. As he serves Christ in His Church, he is termed Minister. As it is his duty to be grave and prudent, and an example to the flock, and to govern well in the House and Kingdom of Christ, he is termed Presbyter or Elder. As he is the messenger of God, he is termed the Angel of the Church. As he is to declare the will of God to sinners, and to beseech them to be reconciled to God through Christ, he is termed Ambassador. And as he dispenses the manifold grace of God and the ordinances instituted by Christ, he is termed Steward of the Mysteries of God.

RULING ELDERS.

Ruling Elders are the representatives of the people, chosen by them for the purpose of exercising government and discipline in conjunction with Pastors or Ministers.

This office has been understood, by a great part of the Protestant Reformed Churches, to be designated in the Holy Scriptures by the title of Governments, and of those who rule well, but do not labor, in word or doctrine. They not only have authority to receive members and exercise government and discipline in the Church, but are diligently to look whether every one properly deports himself; to admonish those who are disorderly, and to aid the Pastor in all things pertaining to the oversight and care of the flock. In case of a vacancy in the Pastoral office, they act under and with the advice of the Presbytery.

DEACONS.

(See form of Govt., Chaps. IX and X.)

The Scriptures clearly point out Deacons as distinct officers in the Church, whose business is to take care of the poor and to distribute among them the collections which may be raised for their use. To them also may be properly committed the management of the temporal affairs of the Church.

THIRD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Third Presbyterian Church of Chicago was organized by a Committee of the Presbytery of Ottawa, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Patterson, Bascom, Wilcox, Walker and Henderson, on the 1st of July, 1847. At its organization, the church was composed of thirty-five members, of whom Messrs. Philo Carpenter, Henry Smith, Lawrens Kent and Gustavus W. Southworth were chosen Elders. The house of worship, a small frame building, situated on Union street between Washington and Randolph streets, was dedicated to the worship of God on the succeeding Sabbath, the 4th of July,

From the organization of the church until November, 1849, they enjoyed the ministerial labor of the Rev. J. B. Walker as their stated supply.

In November, 1849, a call was made out and presented to the Rev. Lewis H. DeLoss, of Rockford, to become the pastor of the church. In answer to this call, Mr. DeLoss commenced his labors in the church on the second Sabbath in November, 1849, and was duly installed as its pastor May 12th, 1850. On the 10th of June, 1851, the pastoral relations between him and the church were, by mutual consent, dissolved by the Presbytery.

On the 5th of October, 1851, Mr. Edwin G. Moore, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Franklin, Ohio, was invited to labor in the church, with a view to ultimate settlement as its pastor. Mr. Moore commenced his labors in the month of October, and was, on the 5th of November, 1852, called to settle with them as their pastor. Having accepted their call, Mr. Moore was ordained and installed over the church by a committee of the Presbytery on the 14th of the same month. The labors of Mr. Moore were continued until the autumn of 1854.

The Rev. Mr. Ferris, of the Dutch Reformed Church, supplied the pulpit from the succeeding spring until the call of Rev. Asahel L. Brooks to the pastorate of the church. Mr. Brooks was installed June 12th, 1856. This ministry was terminated, at his own request, November 17th, 1859.

On the 6th of February, 1860, the Rev. Arthur Swazey was invited to the pastoral care of the church. He began his labors on the 1st of April following, and was formally installed by the Presbytery September 12th of the same year.

Over five hundred persons were admitted to the church during the pastorate of Dr. Swazey, and a debt of some forty-five thousand dollars nearly extinguished. On the 16th of December, 1869, he tendered his resignation, which, at his earnest request, was accepted at a meeting of the church held the following day.

On the 13th of June, 1870, Rev. Abbott E. Kittredge, pastor of the Eleventh Presbyterian Church of New York, was elected pastor of this church, and on the 2d of October following began his labors, having been installed by the Presbytery on that day. Three churches have been organized during this period from our membership, the Reunion, Westminster and Campbell Park churches. Three Sabbath schools are under the care of this church, the Home school and the Foster and Noble Street Mission schools, with a total enrolled membership of 1,917 scholars.

In the autumn of 1877 the church edifice on the corner of Washington and Carpenter streets was sold to the congregation of the Reformed Episcopal Church, under the care of Rev. Bishop Fallows, and in May, 1878, the present edifice on Ashland avenue was occupied.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I. — We believe that there is one only living and true God — the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost — self-existent and infinite in every perfection, the Creator, Preserver and Governor of the Universe.

ART. II. — We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were written by holy men as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

ART. III. — We believe that Jesus Christ, our Mediator, is truly God and truly man, and that, by his sufferings and death on the cross He made atonement for the sins of the world; so that the offers of salvation are sincerely made to all men, and all who repent and believe in Him will be justified and saved.

ART. IV. — We believe that those who are justified through faith in Christ are renewed by the Holy Ghost, according to the eternal purpose of God, and will owe their preservation in holiness and final salvation to grace alone and not to any works of righteousness which they have done.

ART. V. — We believe that the children of God are created in Jesus Christ unto good works, and that a renewed heart will evince itself in the various acts of an obedient and holy life.

ART. VI. — We believe that the sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that Baptism is to be administered to none but believers and their households, and the Lord's Supper to be received by His disciples.

ART. VII. — We believe that Jesus Christ will appear at the end of time to judge the world; that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

FORM OF ADMISSION

TO CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.

BELOVED FRIENDS: You have presented yourselves before God, and His people, and the world, to make a solemn confession of your religious faith, and to take upon you, in a public manner, the bonds of the everlasting covenant. We trust and believe that you have well considered the nature of this transaction, and have already offered yourselves a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, through Jesus Christ. With regard to your doctrinal belief, we feel that, in this public act, but one doctrine is essential to your union with us, and vital to your spiritual health, and that is a hearty and intelligent belief in the Lord Jesus Christ, "God manifest in the flesh," and as such, your Almighty Saviour. In this one fundamental doctrine of our religion do you heartily believe?

[Those who were not baptized in infancy will now be baptized.]

You who were baptized in infancy do now reaffirm, for yourselves, the vows made in your behalf by believing parents at your baptism.

You will now enter into covenant with God and this church.

Believing it to be your duty to confess Christ before men, you do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, to be your God and portion forever; receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as your Prophet, Priest and King, and the Holy Ghost as your sanctifier, comforter and guide. You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God, in the everlasting covenant of his grace; you consecrate all your powers and faculties to His service and glory; and, relying upon the promised aid of the Holy Spirit, you engage to walk in all the statutes and ordinances of the Lord; to assemble yourselves with His people for His worship; to keep holy the Sabbath day; to maintain family and secret prayer; and to honor your high and holy vocation by a life of piety toward God and benevolence toward your fellow men.

Do you thus covenant and engage?

Now, then, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed on your minds that you have entered into the most solemn obligations, and that you have become sharers, also, in the promises of the Everlasting Father. See to it, that ye be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel.

[Those who unite with the church by letter or certificate will rise and join with those who come on confession of faith, in entering into formal covenant with the church, the Pastor saying to them]:

You, fellow-believers, do join yourselves to this church, and covenant to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness and sobriety; to submit to its government and the discipline which Christ has appointed, and strive earnestly for the peace, edification, and purity of the church. All this you promise and engage?

We, then, as a church, do affectionately receive you to our communion. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, and promise to treat you with Christian affection; to watch over you with tenderness, and to offer our prayers to the Great Head of the Church to incline you to fulfil this solemn obligation.

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. "Now, unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory, with exceeding joy; to the only wise God and our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen."

QUESTIONS FOR SELF-EXAMINATION.

The Pastor and Elders propose, for the spiritual improvement of each member of this church, the following questions:

1. Do you hate sin, and because it is in itself exceedingly sinful and odious?

2. Do you trust in Jesus Christ as your only Saviour from sin and death?

3. Do you love Christians, and do you delight in their society?

4. Do you make it a matter of conscience to attend the weekly meetings of the church?

5. Do you desire to know the Saviour in your domestic arrangements, in your place of business and in your social intercourse?

6. Are you watchful over yourself in every respect, especially over your tongue, in restraining it from evil speaking?

7. Do you pray in secret daily, morning and evening?

8. Are you at peace with all men?

9. Do you keep the Sabbath day holy, refraining from all words and deeds inconsistent with the sanctity of that holy day?

10. Are your children instructed in the truth, commended to God in prayer and educated for eternity?

11. Do you worship God in your family and acknowledge Him with thanksgiving at your meals?

12. Do you read your Bible daily and meditate on what you read?

13. What influence has religion on your habitual temper and conduct?

14. What are you doing for Christ and the souls of men?

15. What self-denial are you practising for Christ's sake?

16. Do you labor diligently to bring neglectors of public worship into the sanctuary?

17. Are you in the habit of praying and laboring for the salvation of individuals?

18. Is your religious influence felt in the family, in the church, and in the social circle?

In The Morning Ask Yourself:

1. What good can I do to-day?
2. To what temptations shall I be peculiarly exposed?
3. In what particulars can I act more wisely than I did yesterday?

In The Evening Ask Yourself:

1. What good have I done to-day?
2. What victory have I gained over temptation?
3. Have I been faithful in improving each moment for Christ?

H. E. C. DANIELS, Treas.

CHICAGO, March 31st, 1883.

During the past twelve months aid has been extended to sixteen families and persons members of our Church. Of the above number one person has passed from the earthly communion to the heavenly.

One feature of the work of the Deacons the past year has been a regularly organized visitation of a large number of the congregation with a view to their becoming acquainted with each other.

The Deacons remembered our worthy poor on Thanksgiving and Christmas Days, providing all with good dinners.

The Board desire to ask the co-operation of the Church in their labors. They sincerely trust that persons who may at any time know of those in distress in our congregation, will promptly report their names to them that there may be no delay in rendering assistance.

The Deacons respectfully call the attention of the ladies of the church to the fact that frequent applications are made to them, not only for pecuniary assistance but for employment. They, therefore, request that whenever ladies have sewing or similar work suitable for women, they will, before applying elsewhere, ascertain whether parties can be furnished from the congregation to perform the same. Application can be made to any member of the Board of Deacons.

A. H. KEESE, Sec.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT WORK.

MRS. SAMUEL SHARP, PRESIDENT.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society has held eleven meetings for the season of 1882–3; one a call-meeting to complete unfinished work much needed at the time, and three all day meetings, at which lunches were served and a pleasant social time enjoyed. The largest number in attendance at any one time was 165 and the smallest 19. Forty-five dollars were received in membership fees, twenty of which were paid for our new sewing machine and the remainder went into the missionary box.

Two hundred and seventy-five dollars have been contributed by the session for the purchase of material, from which have been made 650 articles, including clothing, towels and bedding. There were also donated 75 second-hand garments, making in all 725.

Of the above 117 were sent to Park College, Mo.; 69 to Braidwood, and 11 articles were given to Miss Cummings, the medical missionary, while the balance, 528, were distributed here in the city. The following articles were also received by donation: nine yards Canton flannel from Mrs. Henry Osborn; one piece of goods and ten yards red flannel from Mrs. Schwartz; two calico dress patterns and three and a half yards muslin from Mrs. Little for the Braidwood sufferers.

The value of the above named articles, at a fair estimate, would be as follows: sewing machine, $20; one missionary box sent to Mr. Patch, $50; one box to Park College, Mo., $50; articles to Miss Cummings, $15. The 69 articles to Braidwood, together with the 528 distributed in the city, estimated at $400.

LADIES' PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting of the church was organized nine years ago, and has been sustained each week, up to the present time, without interruption.

The meetings are held every Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. The third Tuesday of the month the subject of Foreign Missions is considered and the following week is devoted to temperance.

The influence of these meetings as a means of spiritual growth and strength to the church cannot be overestimated.

All the ladies of the church are cordially invited to attend these services, and by their presence and efforts increase the interest of the meetings and also promote their own spiritual welfare.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

MRS. A. G. BEEBE, PRESIDENT.

The Industrial School has held its sessions from 2 to 4 o'clock every Saturday afternoon, from November 18th, 1882, to April 21st, 1883, in the Holland Presbyterian Church, corner of Erie and Noble streets. The object has been to instruct girls in sewing, together with religious instruction, forty minutes being given to the latter at the opening of the school. Although the field of labor was a new one, the school opened with 148 scholars and 18 teachers and officers, and the interest in the work steadily increased until, on March 3d, there were present 227 scholars and 29 officers and teachers. The whole number of pupils enrolled has been 267, with an average attendance of 194. The whole number of teachers and officers enrolled was 44.

Average attendance 29. The number of garments finished by pupils, 311. Number of bed-quilts pieced, 79.

The school has been successful on account of the faithfulness and earnestness of the teachers, who have been unusually punctual in attendance and interested in the work.

Donations have been received from the Sunday School and Dr. Kittredge.

Bibles were awarded to pupils for perfectly committing the Scripture Catechism taught in the opening exercises.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

MRS. C. N. HARTWELL, PRESIDENT.

This Society, organized twelve years ago, has since been engaged in active work without interruption, holding regular meetings the third Tuesday of each month, at 3 p. m., in the church parlors.

Its object is to disseminate missionary intelligence and to receive contributions for foreign missions.

The officers consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and Finance Committee. The Society numbers at present 246 members. The meetings are opened with prayer, singing and Bible reading, after which the monthly reports of Secretary and Treasurer are given; letters received from foreign fields are read, and items of interest connected with the foreign missionary work are contributed. The subjects for the meetings for the past year have been as heretofore, beginning with China for January, Mexico, India, Siam and Laos, Africa, North American Indians, South America, Japan, Persia, Papal Europe and the Syria mission. The support of two lady missionaries, Mrs. Kelso and Miss Olmstead, continues to be the special object for which the greater part of the fund received is appropriated.

Mrs. Kelso, of Lodiana, India, who a year ago visited America, has returned to her work in India, and recent intelligence received from her shows her increased zeal and interest in her life-work, with added health and strength following the rest so much needed. Miss Olmstead writes beautiful letters from Bankok, Siam, full of joy and consecration. She went forth three years ago to the work that God had chosen for her, and her efforts have been blessed in all she has been led to do.

Our own church has been honored: We have had the privilege of aiding in the preparation required in sending out one of our own number, a member of the Third Church, Miss Cummings, who goes as a medical missionary to Japan. Over three hundred dollars has been contributed through this Society toward her outfit.

Our pastor, Dr. Kittredge, has found time to come into our meetings on several occasions, and has given us words of encouragement and united his earnest prayers with ours in the cause which we represent.

Christian sisters, shall we not strive to do a grander work for Christ in the coming year, by sending the Word of Life to those who sit in darkness, that when the "Harvest Home" is sung and the laborers gather at sunset, we may come with our arms filled with sheaves saved for the granary of our Lord?

THE YOUNG LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

MRS. MARY O. LYMAN, PRESIDENT.

This Society, composed of the young ladies of the church, was organized January 17th, 1882.

During the first winter the young ladies appropriated $100 to Miss Olmstead in Siam, $57 to the Bible Readers' Home, and several smaller sums to various charitable purposes, and had, at their last meeting in May, 1882, $230.59 in the treasury.

During the fall of 1882 $100 was sent to Miss Olmstead, $25 to Miss Cummings and $13.89 to the Bible Readers' Home.

After January 1st, 1883, the young ladies gave a few mite socials, a Japanese tea party, and, after paying all expenses, had in the treasury $306.73, $300 of which was assigned to Mrs. Ash for the purpose of getting her in the Old Ladies' Home.

The Society adjourned May 6th, 1883, to meet again in September, with a balance in the treasury of $6.73.

IDA B. HAIR, Secretary.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

This Association was organized in October, 1880, and is composed exclusively of the young people of the congregation. In the words of its Constitution, "Its object is to develop the Christian character, improve the spiritual, intellectual and social condition of its members, and to inspire religious activity among all the young people of the church."

The growth and success of the Association has far exceeded the anticipations of its founders. It numbers now a membership of about four hundred, maintains an excellent free reading-room, and owns a circulating library of about one thousand volumes, which is held exclusively for the use of its members.

The work of the Association has been thoroughly systematized, and is divided among three general committees, as follows: A Devotional Committee, who have general supervision of the Young People's Prayer Meetings, select subjects, appoint leaders, and see that strangers visiting the meetings are cordially welcomed; a Library Committee, composed of five gentlemen having control of the Reading-Room and Library; and an Entertainment Committee, of eight ladies and eight gentlemen, having the management of the social gatherings and of all literary and musical entertainments.

As regards the general work of the Association, it may be said, briefly, that through its frequent socials it has brought the young people of the church together and bound them by ties of a common acquaintance and friendship. It offers them also the use of a circulating library in every respect equal to the best in the city. Spiritually its work is shown in largely increased attendance at the Young People's Prayer Meetings, now averaging an attendance of over three hundred, and in the very large number of its members, who have united with the church during last year.

While striving to supply to some extent the social and intellectual needs of our young people, it is beyond all else the desire of the managers that the Library Association shall be a growing power for good, and that its work and influence shall be seen and felt in the salvation of souls and the strengthening of our church.

THE SEED SOWERS.

MRS. W. W. FULLER, PRESIDENT.

The Mission Band of "Seed Sowers" was organized March 11th, 1882, and is composed of the little girls of the congregation, twelve years old and under. The meetings have been held every alternate Saturday, the time being occupied in sewing and religious and literary exercises.

The children have raised through their efforts during the year nearly $50, and will now assume the support of a child in some mission school. The meetings have been well attended and a growing interest manifested in the work by both parents and children.

"These all died in faith."

"I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope."

"They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat."

"And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign forever and ever."

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

"One family we dwell in Him,
One church, above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

"One army of the living God
To His commands we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now."

In addition to the above, the Third church contributed $450 00 for rent of the hall and other expenses.

The Infant Class numbers from 100 to 175 children, and the Bible Class from 30 to 50 members. In connection with the latter a weekly Prayer meeting is held.

The location of this school is unfortunate, both for its growth and prosperity, held in a hall in a third story, inaccessible to children, and under the shadow of a Catholic church, not favorable to its prosperity with many of the children living a long distance south. The necessity seems apparent that the school, for its own usefulness, should be located south of Van Buren or Harrison streets.

THOMAS GOODMAN, TREASURER.

THE BOARD OF DEACONS.

The Board of Deacons is organized with the Pastor as Moderator for the purpose of overseeing the poor of the Church in visitation and relief. An additional duty is the care of the communion service, and of providing for the communion table. They also have under their care the church burial-lot at Rose Hill, which is entirely paid for, and upon which they expect to erect a suitable monument at an early day.

A regular meeting of the Board is held on the second Friday of each month; at which the Treasurer renders a report of receipts and expenditures. At the same time, reports are made by the different members of the Board, as to cases left in their charge. New cases are then brought to the attention of the Board, and such measures taken for their investigation and relief as may be deemed necessary. Great care is taken in extending assistance, and the unanimous assent of at least three members must be obtained before any pecuniary relief can be rendered.

The resources of the Board are obtained from the Sacramental collections, which are set apart for the relief of the poor of the Church, and from occasional special collections.

The work of the Board for the past year has been carried on faithfully and quietly; but we believe not unfruitfully, and to the honor of the Savior's name. Pecuniary aid has been extended to seventeen families and individuals during the year, which includes funeral expenses in several instances.

In accordance with the custom of the Board, a large number of turkeys and other necessaries were distributed amongst our Church poor on Thanksgiving Day.

We trust that our Church membership will during the coming year contribute even more liberally to the funds of this Board, as there is practically no limit to the good that can be done, if only the necessary means are made available.

During the past year, our dear friend and fellow-laborer, A. Hoffman Keese, has been called from the service below to that of the Church above, being the first from our number to pass through the gates into the City. The Board unanimously passed the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, God in His Providence, on the twelfth of March, 1884, called from our number our dear brother and Secretary, A. HOFFMAN KEESE,

Resolved, That we as a Board do hereby testify to his great Christian worth, his devotion to the Master's cause, his zeal in every good work, his earnestness and consecration as evinced in his daily walk, and to our high appreciation of his faithful and valuable services as a member and Secretary of this Board.

By his death we have lost an efficient and earnest fellow-laborer, and the Church a most useful member.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family in their bereavement, and that these resolutions be placed upon the records of this Board, and copies be transmitted to his wife and mother.

WM. H. BEEBE, SEC.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT WORK.

MRS. W. H. ANDERSON, PRESIDENT; MRS. WM. MENDSEN, VICE-PRESIDENT.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society reorganized October 23, 1883. There has been held, during the season, ten meetings, four of which convened at 11 o'clock, and were made interesting and entertaining by reports from various charitable and benevolent societies; also readings and religious exercises, after which a lunch was served. The remaining six were devoted entirely to work, and met at the usual hour. The largest attendance has been 135; the smallest, 45. Individual contributions of material have been received, valued at $35; also 400 second-hand garments.

Special purchases have been made from the society fund, amounting to $90, which were equal to 100 pieces.

The above 400 articles, with the 500 made by the united efforts of the ladies, makes a total of 900 pieces. From these, four boxes have been compiled and sent away, two to Park College, Mo., and two to home missionaries; the approximate value of them being $265. The remainder were distributed in our city, as follows:

The Northwestern Theological Seminary; Illinois Industrial School for Girls; Home for Incurables; Foundlings' Home, and some fifty families of our worthy poor. Our season closed March 26, with a membership of 88. As our reports stand, may we not feel amply repaid for the time given, and cheered by the sacred words, "Cast thy bread upon the waters, for thou shalt find it after many days."

The School opened October 13, 1883, at the Temperance Church, on Noble street, with an attendance of 176 scholars. By November 15, the number had increased until no more scholars could be received, and December 1st the School was removed to a larger church, where there has been a

The girls under instruction in this school are from five to fifteen years of age, and of eight nationalities, and have been found to be teachable and obedient, and during the two hours each Saturday spent in the Schools, have made great progress in sewing, also in their appearance, special attention having been given to cultivating cleanliness and ladylike behavior, as well as teaching the foundations of the Christian faith, and endeavoring to lead them to Jesus as their Savior and Guide.

There have been completed in the School during the past winter 374 garments and 240 tidies, the latter being used as preparatory to garments by beginners, in connection with patchwork.

Collections have been taken in the School every Saturday, amounting in all to $34.17, which, with $147.55 given by the Home Sunday School, has been used to defray the expenses of the School.

The thing standing in the way of the highest usefulness of this School is the want of a sufficient number of faithful teachers, though there is an increased interest in this department of the ladies' work, and we hope another year may find many more of our sisters ready to sacrifice something to be used by the Master in this work of bringing some of the heathen at our own doors, both to knowledge of civilized living and to Christ, by helping these girls to become useful, Christian women.

THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The annual meeting in March brought another year's work to a close making thirteen years since this society was organized. The following ladies were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Miss L. R. Hall; vice-presidents, Mrs. H. T. Helm, Mrs. A. E. Kittredge, Mrs. L. S. Hodges, Dr. Emma Woodworth; Treasurer, Mrs. H. A. Osborn; Finance Committee, Mrs. J. P. Ketcham, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. R. I. Adamson; secretary, Mrs. J. P. Mills.

Our society numbers over 250 members, and has never seemed more prosperous, or sustained by more efficient workers than at the present time.

Meetings have been held during the year on the third Tuesday of each month at 3 P.M., in the church parlors. The general subjects recommended by the Board have been taken up and discussed. Letters have been received from all parts of the missionary field. The opportunity of listening to Mrs. Van Hook, of Persia, and others returned from their missionary labors for a little rest, has been offered to us on several occasions. We have also had the pleasure of welcoming to our society Mrs. Hoge, president of the Woman's Board of the Northwest. Her earnest spiritual words have been a help, and an inspiration to us in pushing forward the work.

We have renewed our pledges for the support of Mrs. Kelso and Miss Olmsted for the coming year. Mrs. Kelso is again engaged in her lifework in her beloved India. She writes of having been transferred from Lahore to Saharanpur. Her letters are full of interest as her own noble life is full of labor for the Master. Mrs. Olmsted, who is in Siam, devotes much of her time teaching in the girls' school at Bangkok. Her knowledge of medicine gives her opportunities for doing untold good.

We know that her life is consecrated to the service of Christ, and that whatsoever her hands find to do will be done to His honor and glory. The work of the year has been in several respects unusually pleasant and encouraging. Both officers and members have labored together earnestly and harmoniously, and have not been without the reward which such association in Christian work is sure to bring.

Our society has grown to be one of the regular church activities, but our constant prayer is that every sister in the church may arise, and, in the strength of her spiritual energies and intellectual endowments, place this work on a higher plane than it has yet attained to, or ever can reach until an interest is felt and evinced, not by the few or the majority, but by all. We cannot forbear to make mention of the praise meeting, held under the auspices of our society, on the afternoon of February 28, that "great day of the feast," when, in response to the invitation "Bring an offering and come into His Courts," the "tithes were brought into the storehouse," and a blessing was poured out upon us. Hymns of praise were sung; psalms of thanksgiving were read; prayers of consecration were offered; glowing words came from consecrated hearts and lips, and offerings of praise were laid at His feet. As we turned our steps from the church door, these words seemed borne on every passing breeze, "Bless the Lord, Oh my soul, and all that is within me bless His holy name," and the response came back to every heart who had offered a gift, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

Let us not be discouraged, for the work is the Lord's; but be thankful that He permits us to have a share, not only in the work, but in the reward, listening to His words, "Be not weary in well doing, for in due season ye shall reap if ye faint not." But though we faint, the work of Foreign Missions will still go on, for Christ died for all, and the "glad tidings" will be sent throughout the length and breadth of the whole wide world, until every knee shall bow before Him, and every heart shall acknowledge the name of Christ as their Redeemer.

MRS. H. A. OSBORN, Treasurer.

YOUNG LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

This Society was organized purely for benevolent work.

The year 1883–4 opened with Mrs. A. G. Ashley, President; Mrs. R. J. Adamson, Vice-President; Miss Carrie B. Havens, Secretary; Miss Louise Savage, Treasurer.

During the preceding year $300 had been raised, and it was the first work of the society with this sum to provide a home for an old lady in the Old Ladies' Home of this city. The number of members this year, both active and associate, was 112. $408.52 was the total amount raised during the year. Of this $303.65 was disbursed by different committees in their work of visiting and aiding the Hospital for Women and Children, the Cook County Hospital, the Home for Incurables, one sick lady, and eight poor families. $25 was donated to the temperance work under the auspices of the Y. W. C. T. U., of the West Side, leaving in the treasury for the ensuing year the balance of $104.87.

SEED SOWERS.

The society called the Seed Sowers is composed of little girls from six to twelve years of age. There are sixty members, with an average attendance of thirty.

The children meet once in two weeks. They have supported, the past year, a little boy in Lodiana, India. The money was raised by a sale of fancy articles made by the little girls, and also from mission boxes, which each child has at home.

The society was very successful this last year, under the care of Mrs. B. C. Prentiss.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

OFFICERS.

L. T. Woodcock.....President.
C. D. Mill.....Vice-President.
M. E. Johnston.....Secretary.
Seymour Morris.....Treasurer.

During the year ending May 1, 1884, there have been added to the Library 376 volumes, of which number 359 were library books, in the strict sense of that term, and 17 were bound volumes of magazines and other periodicals; so that the library now contains about 1300 volumes. There were also added to the number of magazines and periodicals for the reading-room sixteen weekly papers; so that there are now on the tables of the reading-room, for the use of the young people of the church and congregation, thirty-three different newspapers, magazines and periodicals, including some of the best British and American publications of the kind.

Since the 1st of January of this year a new catalogue has been prepared, the library has been entirely rearranged, and it is to-day in perfect order and good condition.

The Association numbers 404 members.

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith."

"Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out."

"The Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

"And they shall see His face."

"He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly, Amen. Even so come, Lord Jesus."

Multitude, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stand,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hand.

They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
Tried they were, and firm they stood.

Gladly, Lord, with thee they suffered,
Gladly, Lord, with thee they died;
And by death to life immortal,
They were born and glorified.

Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite.

Love and peace they taste forever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the beatific vision
Of the Blessed Trinity.

WILLIAM OSBORN.

An honored elder in the Third Church, who, in its early history, gave not only strength and time, but wealth for its prosperity, and never failed to guard its interests with a loving vigilance. He fell asleep, in a ripe old age, having nobly finished the work which his Master entrusted to his care. The session would gratefully acknowledge the debt they owe to the fidelity and zeal of this revered brother, and his name and memory will always be cherished in our church as of a sincere Christian and a pillar of spiritual strength.

"He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him."

"Faithful unto death."

JOHN S. CARPENTER — CHAS. F. CHESSMAN.

The session would place upon its records their deep sorrow in the unexpected deaths of two of its most honored members of the Church and most reliable officers, Bros. John S. Carpenter and Chas. F. Chessman. Though these brethren had been connected with the eldership only a few years, they had become, through their earnest piety and loving unselfish devotion to the interests of the Church, strong pillars in the service of the Master, and, in our poor judgment, they could not be spared from the field where they so joyfully labored; but we bow in submission to His will "who doeth all things well," assured that "our loss is their eternal gain."
